New USPS Stamp – Stop by the post office to stock up on stamps.

19th Amendment: Women Vote

With this stamp, the Postal Service commemorates the centennial of the ratification of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which guarantees women the right to vote. Inspired by historic photographs, the stamp features a stylized illustration of suffragists marching in a parade or other public demonstration. The clothes they wear and the banners they bear display the official colors of the National Woman’s Party — purple, white and gold. Art director Ethel Kessler designed the stamp with original art by Nancy Stahl.

AAUW-NYS The story of the 70 YEAR struggle to obtain the right for women to vote was long and even violent. It is a story that has had only a surface treatment. PBS, as part of their American Experience Series Films, has put together four hours of documentary film in two parts with historical footage and commentary by current writers and historians. There is so much to this story and a favorite line is “Women were not GIVEN the vote in 1920 they TOOK IT!”

The Vote, Part 1 <https://www.pbs.org/video/the-vote-part-1-3kph5d/> One hundred years after the passage of the 19th Amendment, The Vote tells the dramatic culmination story of the hard-fought campaign waged by American women for the right to vote, a transformative cultural and political movement that resulted in the largest expansion of voting rights in U.S. history.

The Vote, Part 2 <https://www.pbs.org/video/part-2-the-vote-american-experience-o95eqq/> Part Two examines the mounting dispute over strategy and tactics, and reveals how the pervasive racism of the time, particularly in the South, impacted women's fight for the vote.

“Iron Jawed Angels” The film, starring Hilary Swank, focuses on the American women’s suffrage movement during the 1910s and follows women’s suffrage leaders Alice Paul and Lucy Burns as they use peaceful and effective nonviolent strategies, tactics, and dialogues to revolutionize the American feminist movement to grant women the right to vote.

Thanks to everyone who have sent in their renewal dues. Our branch is doing great with the number of members who have rejoined.

Great to hear about how our members are staying connected. I hope you are enjoying getting Connections. Let me know the things you especially like and send me recommendations to share in my next edition.

Since our phone calls to all our branch members made by board members Karen Huggins, Pat Terry, Ellen Auerbach, Arlene Maranville, Carol Reynolds, Faith Weldon, Robin Eddy and Bobbi Richardson, some of our members have since stayed connected by calling and emailing members in their study and interest groups.

Other ideas for face-to-face meetings is using Zoom (if you need help setting it up, contact me), Skype, Facetime and getting together with social distancing. Seeing expressions, movement, personality connected to voices helps create a feeling of having been out and about with the group.

If you're interested in participating in a Walking Group, let me know. After all these months, getting out with friends is special.

If you have suggestions for outdoor activities where social distancing is much easier, such as picnics where people bring their own place settings, let me know.

Free Movie – Racial Justice

- This month you can watch the movie Just Mercy, based on the life work of civil rights attorney Bryan Stevenson. The book this movie which naturally goes more into Stevenson's live and cases, was one of the finalists in the Schenectady's One County One Book contest. The movie is available to rent for FREE until June 30th via most services where you would normally pay to rent a film: YouTube, iTunes, Amazon Prime Video and Google Play. I would highly recommend this movie starring Michael B. Jordan and Jamie Foxx.

Virtual Tour: Slavery at the Mabee Farm

Colonial society was not free or equal. In this video we look at the people who are most often overlooked or forgotten when talking about New York States Past. We'll be talking about slavery at the Mabee Farm.

(youtube.com/watch?v=QwYuS0SSM7U)

Virtual Tour: Colonial Barn Building

When the Mabees came to the Woestina, they would have to build a new life for themselves, literally. In this video we'll show you the techniques the Mabees could use to build their home. We'll be building a scale model of our Dutch Barn. (youtube.com/watch?v=C-klpP5tIAA)

Virtual Field Trip: Blacksmithing Demonstration

In this video we'll talk with John the Blacksmith about how Colonial people would shape iron to create vital tools. It's part art, part science and totally cool! (youtube.com/watch?v=74fN1be4gpo&t=335s)

Virtual Field Trip: Colonial House Tour

What was everyday life like for ordinary people in Colonial New York? What were their homes like and how did they feed themselves? In this video, we'll tour the Mabee Farm to answer these questions and more. Do you think you could survive in 1705? Let's find out! (youtube.com/watch?v=JmKv56jL1ZY)

Virtual Field Trip: Welcome to the Mabee Farm!

Come with us on a journey into the wilderness of Colonial New York. You'll meet the Mabees, a family of Dutch farmers, and explore the world they lived in. And you'll the incredible history of our local area. (youtube.com/watch?v=ifg-rm9h9L0)
